The Scriptorium ~ Setting Details Reference Sheet

Setting a scene puts the characters and your readers in a time, place, and often mood. Flesh out your settings with as much detail as possible, then work the details naturally into your narrative. Use the first section for general notes, and the second for concrete details. Use as many descriptive words as you can.

Location:		General Impression:
Appears in (Ch./Scene):
Look Up	Look Down	Look Around	Scents	Sounds	Temperature
•					·
Surroundings	Objects	Colors	Textures	Scents	Sounds